Event	Additional Notes
Parish Council Meetings	All are welcome to attend ~ after the May Parish Council meeting when the dates of future meetings will be determined this calendar will be updated and circulated. Please remember that there is a public participation period within the meeting when you are able to express your views/concerns/comments to the Council
Chilli & Quiz	Numbers obviously limited due to the constraints of the 'HUT' so please book your place early ~ should be good fun Tickets £8 a head ~ bookings have already been taken
Coffee Mornings	These now happen on a monthly basis and provide a great environment to meet and enjoy the results of some superb cake making skills. All are welcome ~ no age or gender restrictions
Village Fete	The Church and Village Fete with Dog Show is kindly being hosted by Jill and Henry Kilvert at Barton Farm ~ details will be circulated as soon as available
Harvest Supper	Yet again many thanks for the hospitality extended by Irma and Simon Fowler for making Dairy Farm available as the venue ~ as usual we all bring drinks and food to share co-ordinated by Irma and Jane (H)
Carol Service	We are always looking for some young readers to take part in the service which is followed by Mince Pies and Mulled Wine with many thanks to Hannah and Will Barratt generously welcoming us to The Old Rectory

This calendar will be updated and circulated as and when further information of events becomes available and of course new events that are still within the realms of the 'thought process'
